General

1. Inquiries before tendering should be directed in writing to the official whose name is shown in the appropriate box on the tender form and firms should quote the tender number on any correspondence. In the case where a tender envelope has been sent to the bidder, do not use the tender envelope for inquiries because tender envelopes are not opened before tender closing time. All requests for tender award prices should be in writing and sent to the purchasing department.

A Bidder submitting a Bid by facsimile does so at their own risk. Tender documents submitted by facsimile must be received "in full" at the College of the North Atlantic, Purchasing Department, by the specified closing time. Bids received late, or not received completely by the closing time will not be considered. Documents in transmission after the closing time will be considered late tenders. Bidders are responsible for ensuring their Bid, however submitted, is received on time at the specified location. All responses must be received before the exact closing time and date indicated. Responses received after that time will not be considered.

3. In the case where tender envelopes are used, tenders must be submitted on the official tender form in sealed envelopes, showing the closing time and tender number and delivered before the closing time to:
