An individual member shall be any fee paying student who is a member of their local student council of College of the North Atlantic.

1.1.4 Voting Member

A voting member shall be any elected representative of an SRC.

1.1.5 Ballot Vote

A ballot vote is a confidential (secret) process by which those eligible to participate select a candidate in an election. Voting is via indicating their choice on a ballot created specifically for that purpose. Ballots may be physical (e.g paper, cardstock, token, etc) or electronic.

2. Organization

2.1 This organization shall be called “College of the North Atlantic Students’ Union,” and it shall consist of students of College of the North Atlantic, hereinafter referred to as the CNASU.

2.2 The CNASU shall conduct its’ business using Robert’s Rules of Order.

3. Purpose

The purpose of the CNASU is:

- 3.1 To provide a forum for the students of College of the North Atlantic to work cooperatively to advance the interests of the students which they represent.
- 3.2 To promote a better understanding of the needs and issues of the students of College of the North Atlantic.
- 3.3 To represent, promote, and advocate the common interests of students of College of the North Atlantic.
- 3.4 To promote social responsibility between and among College of the North Atlantic local councils and the College as a whole.
- 3.5 To discuss and decide College of the North Atlantic province wide recreational activities and other events. This will include the site and date and will be discussed at the first meeting of the academic year (Amended March 2005).
- 3.6 To promote and advance the interests, needs and common issues of all students with the College of the North Atlantic. (Amended March 2005)

4. Types of memberships

- 4.1 There shall be a representative on the CNASU from each campus of College of the North Atlantic. Each representative shall meet the following criteria:
 - (1) Be a president (or president's designate) of an SRC, who will be selected by the SRC President.
 - (2) Be a registered fee-paying student of College of the North Atlantic.
 - (3) Maintain good academic standing, as defined by the Academic Calendar of the College, in the program the CNASU member is enrolled.
- 4.2 A sitting union may appoint a person to the council for the present year based on the criteria of being:
 - (1) a past student;
 - (2) an Alumni member;
 - (3) a former member of the CNASU.

This appointment will give no voting privileges to the appointee. The appointment must be unanimous to the voting members at the meeting for which the vote is taken, and extends for the present academic year only.

4.5 To ensure equal representation for all campuses, an additional delegate from the CNASU president's campus will attend meetings and hold that campuses vote.

4.5.1 In the event of a tie in a ballot vote, the CNASU will rediscuss the motion, and vote again. In the case of another tie, the chair rules.

4.5.2 In the event of a tie in a yay/nay vote, the "nay" will win.

5. Responsibilities of Voting Members

5.1 The voting member shall administer the operations of the CNASU.

5.2 Each CNASU member shall support the objectives of the CNASU and shall abide by all provisions of these Operating Guidelines. (Amended February 2004)

5.3 Each CNASU member shall be responsible for representing the interests and concerns of the students from the campus in which they were elected. (Amended February 2004)

20. Honorariums

20.1 The distribution of executive honorarium will be discussed and decided at the final meeting of each year.

21. Requests for Funds from the CNASU

21.1 SRC's seeking funds must submit a funds request (outlining the items to be purchased and reasons for the purchase) two weeks prior to when the SRC will need the funds. The funds request must be "needs-based", and an SRC may be required to submit a financial statement to the CNASU to prove this.

22.1 Student Board of Governor Nominee Election Process
The CNASU strives to achieve, via election and nomination of the student members of the Board from among its ranks, representation that is reflective of the diversity of the CNA student body.

22. CNASU-Board of Governor Procedures

The following process shall be followed for the election of student nominees to the Board:

- (1) The advisor to the CNASU acts as the Chief Returning Officer (CRO) for election of student nominees to the Board.
- (2) The CRO, in consultation with the President of the CNASU and the Secretary of the Board, will determine the date of the election.
- (3) The CRO shall
 - issue the call for eligible candidates
 - ensure candidates meet eligibility requirement for nomination and appointment
 - compile an election slate for each position
 - prepare, issue (or cause to be issued), and receive the ballots
 - count the ballots, in the presence of a scrutineer designated by the CNASU
 - provide the results of the election to the CNASU and its candidates, and to the Board Chair and the President of the College (in that order).
- (4) Information on the board, its activities and responsibilities and the expectations of its members will be available to potential candidates.

- (5) Voting is conducted by secret ballot and administered by the CRO.
- (6) Each voting member is permitted one vote for each position. Ballots may be cast in person at a meeting of the CNASU or may be conducted electronically.
- (7) A candidate must receive the majority of votes to be declared elected. The name of the candidate with the second highest vote count will be recorded and may be approached to complete the term of the elected candidate should that individual vacate the position prior to the end of their appointed term.
- (8) The names of the elected candidate(s) and the second highest vote getters will be released to the Chair of the Board and the President prior to be publically posted. The Board will forward the CNASU nominations to the Minister responsible.

22.2 Appeal

A candidate has the right to appeal the results of the process if they have reasonable cause to feel that the procedure was not properly followed. The appeal must be made in writing to the CRO within 48 hours of the declaration of the winning candidate.

22.3 Term of Appointment

- (1) The term of office of each student nominee shall be no more than two years as defined by The College Act, 1996.
- (2) Eligible members may be reappointed for a second consecutive term of 1 or 2 years.
- (3) A student member of the board whose appointment has expired (and who continues to be eligible to serve) continues to be a member of the board until a successor is appointed or the member resigns their position.

22.4 Change in Student Member Status

- (1) Academic Standing – An appointed student member who is placed on conditional status may continue to serve on the recommendation of the Associate Vice-President Student Services.
- (2) CNASU Standing – A student member of the board who is no longer an elected member of the CNASU may remain a non-voting member of the CNASU as per section 7.5 of these By-Laws.

22.5 Nomination and Appointment Process

Nominations are submitted to the responsible Minister for appointment by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

22.6 Mid-Term Vacancies

- (1) Mid-term vacancies may be filled by the student receiving the next highest votes provided that individual is still eligible and willing to serve.
- (2) The term of office shall be limited to the remainder of the term of the original appointee. Upon the conclusion of that term, an appointee who remains eligible under 7.1 may be reappointed to the board for a second consecutive term.
- (3) Where election was by acclamation, or there is no candidate eligible and willing to serve, a determination will be made whether a new election should be called.

Poll Captain Instructions

At your station you should have the following supplies:

- voters' list
- ruler
- red pen
- pens for voters
- envelopes for spoiled ballots, double ballots
- ballot box
- privacy screen
- poster including question

General Voting Procedures:

At each campus polling station One (1) College Employee (SDO or designate) will act as the Poll Captain and when possible a Scrutineer will be appointed from the student body. Poll Captains shall not discuss the merits of the campaign with voters.

Voters with questions about the campaign shall be directed to student council representatives or be given an information leaflet. Students should also be encouraged to use the email, phone number, and website contained in the information leaflet.

- The poll clerk shall confirm the name of each voter that appears on the voters' list.
- The voter shall provide a form of identification (preferable College of the North Atlantic student id).
- Before being provided to the voter, a ballot will be initialed by one of the poll clerks.
- The ballot will be supplied to the student.
- The poll clerk will cross the students' name off the voters list.
- The student will mark the ballot and deposit it into the ballot box.

In the event that a name does not appear on the list, the student shall be provided with a ballot that, after being marked, will be placed inside a sealed envelop. This envelop will be placed inside a second envelop with the student's name and student id on the outside, which will be deposited into the ballot box. When the ballots are opened to be counted, the student's eligibility to vote will be verified with the registrar. If the student is eligible to vote, the envelopes will be opened and the ballot will be added to the others prior to counting. If the student is found to be ineligible, the envelopes containing the ballot will be destroyed.

Counting and Scrutineering the Ballots:

One (1) College Employee (SDO or designate) and 1 Student Representative of the SRC must oversee the counting and scrutineering of the ballots.

Questions and Concerns

Any questions that are deemed to be irresolvable with the Poll Captain must be forwarded to the Chief Returning Officer immediately. (Amended September 2004)
