John Oates Memorial Bursary

John Oates was a long-standing employee of the College of the North Atlantic (CNA), starting his career there as an instructor. He assumed several leadership roles during his time at CNA, finishing his career as a lead administrator for several campuses. His professional and volunteer work touched countless people locally, nationally, and internationally, especially through his involvement with groups and organizations such as Skills Canada and World Skills. With this annual award, we recognize John's commitment to and support of students.

Donor: Friends and Family of John Oates

Number of Awards: One

Value: $250
