

Clyde Mitchelmore Jr. Memorial Scholarship

It is with much pride that we offer this scholarship to a student at the St. Anthony campus in memory of our loving husband and father, Clyde. He attended College of the North Atlantic in 1978 where he completed the Carpentry program. He would be honoured to know that a student is continuing their successful education journey made possible in some small part through the support of this scholarship. We are honoured to offer this support in his name.
