

Travis Marche Entrance Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded in honor and memory of Travis Marche. Travis graduated from the Business Administration Program in 2012 and was the first recipient of this scholarship, formerly known as the Business Administration Entrance Scholarship. Travis spent his entire life struggling with Crohn's Disease but that did not stop him from attaining his goal of graduating from the Business Administration program and working towards a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree with Memorial University. Travis' strength, courage and positive attitude throughout his life was an inspiration to all who knew him. Travis will always be remembered by his instructors and classmates as a kind and wonderful young man who was helpful and respectful to everyone.
